

1. Matt and Connor: School kids, starting senior year, and looking forward to their band's progress, seemingly normal bros
2. Mystery character knows protagonist's secret ability, asks them to come with him
3. Our heroes sense police activity and buck, but new school officer, Jezebel, threatens him with prison unless he burns her families church down
4. Connor, confused by Matt's disappearance sees mystery guy, Parker, after school and decides to hear him out.
5. Church scene, fayoran gene activated in Matt, Pheonix incarnates to revive him after dying of blood loss, Matt is now considered a terrorist, Parker can keep him off-grid if they agree to team up to solve a dark group who are hunting both Matt and Parker down to kill them.
6. Parker's AI leads them to sacred areas where they meet other crew members and clash with an army of clones, made with Matt's DNA
7. Native pyramid (yin yang theme, dual path ziggurat) has mythical underground tunnel system, which according to legend is the only way to get past tundra mountains and reach southern hollow earth system, first discovering ancient knowledge of how to manipulate the ETHEREAL energy into elemental form, allowing them to fly through the un hospitable tunnel system. Second discovery they make is a massive human breeding and trafficking operation spanning entire world via catacombs
8. After saving millions and destroying clone army, Matt begins to manifest violent rage. 3 men come claiming to be Matt's twin brothers, and they explain Matt must now be killed in order for them to finally isolate this evil energy, otherwise it will continue moving through hosts untracked. If Matt is overtaken by evil while wielding the phoenix, it will be a danger to the planet. Control of Matt will allow Evil to rule the universe. Matt is killed, not to be revived until Evil is captured.
9. Connor, who had finally come to terms with being the only crew member with no powers, is brought to a sword in stone, he pulls it free and inherits power that he had sealed during his past-life as a samurai-sorcerer. This surprise power catches Matt off-guard and allows Connor to land a killing blow.
10. The evil matt incarnates and is positioned as anti-christ like global leader, the crew locates his evil lair, underneath a volcano, and proced to battle him while trying to maintain the highground as the volcano is set to erupt, eventually reaching a climax on the volcanos rim, where he and Parker fall in, sealing them in magma rock
11. Original Matt body returns from inside temple, although no one placed his body there. (for the first time in series, he is not particularly hungry) Parker is revealed to be Connor's dad's former partner, and had been operating as a remote clone entire time. Parker's original older body is alive and well in his secret lab, he is cautious to leave, afraid Evil will target him as a plan B host. Concerned, he says its best to say his final goodbye to the crew. cue tears
12. During his time among the dead, Matt lived 1000 lifetimes (little teaser revealing the first life he spent on Earth, as young Thoth). Throughout those lives he was directly engaged against all the most potent evil incarnations, and subsequently figured out how to trap evil in a paranoia loop, preventing him from achieving perfection. This allows the universe to avoid it's destined destruction at the hands of a perfected Evil (God-Equivalent). Thoth and base-Evil manifest to thank our heroes for helping to solve the problem they accidentally set in motion when their path's first crossed, on primordial Earth.
13. (Feel Good upbeat theme Ending Scene) The crew is recruited to be TIME PATROLS (crew is in a cutting edge mothership, full-band jamming in epic suits, time passports stamped, and we watch them float away from Earth to man their new stations, outside of timespace, somewhere... beyond Infinity.
